Families Invited to Learn about Energy Conservation on October 30 at Stepping Stones Get Into It! FREE Evening Sponsored by Connecticut Light & Power and the Connecticut Energy Efficiency Fund

Norwalk, CT, October 24, 2008 – Connecticut Light & Power (CL&P) and the Connecticut Energy Efficiency Fund (CEEF) have joined forces with Stepping Stones Museum for Children in Norwalk to promote energy efficiency during Energy Conservation Month. CL&P and CEEF will be at the museum on Thursday, October 30 from 5 – 8 pm.

Special activities including an “energy efficient” book reading by Department of Public Utility Commissioner Jack Betkoski at 5:45 pm, a special “Fun with Energy” performance by Jeff Boyer at 6:45 pm and guest appearance by the energy efficiency dinosaur mascot “Effy” – will all take place free of charge. An information table with CL&P staff will promote energy-efficiency and provide valuable information to all attendees.

Stepping Stones Museum for Children is an award-winning children's museum committed to broadening and enriching the lives of children. Museum exhibits, educational programs and special events complement efforts in schools, childcare centers and homes. With four main galleries, a toddlers-only gallery and more than 100 hands-on activities, Stepping Stones offers children ten and under plenty to explore and discover. Stepping Stones is located in Mathews Park, 303 West Avenue, Norwalk, CT, exit 14 North and 15 South off I-95. Open Tuesday 1 – 5 pm and Wednesday – Sunday 10 am – 5 pm. For more information, visit steppingstonesmuseum.org or call 203 899 0606.

About the Connecticut Energy Efficiency Fund (CEEF):

The CEEF promotes efficient energy use, helps residents and businesses save on their electric bills, advances economic development, reduces electric demand and helps reduce air pollution. The Connecticut Light and Power Company and The United Illuminating Company administer the CEEF through conservation programs that serve residential customers, including low and fixed-income customers, as well as business and municipal customers. Connecticut's energy-efficiency programs are funded by the conservation charge on customers' electric bills. Additional information on Connecticut's energy-efficiency programs can be found at www.CTEnergyInfo.com.

The Connecticut Light and Power Company (CL&P) has been part of everyday life in Connecticut for more than 100 years, providing safe and reliable electric service to homes, neighborhoods and businesses. With 1.2 million customers in 149 cities and towns, CL&P is an active member in the communities it serves, offering programs in energy conservation, economic development and environmental stewardship. CL&P is part of the Northeast Utilities System (NYSE: NU). For more information, visit www.cl-p.com.
